Admissions Requirements:

Students wishing to enroll in the TN Professional Training Institute's 80 Hour Medical Billing and Coding must meet these admissions criteria:

- Must be 18 years of age or older
- Must be a high school, G.E.D or HiSET graduate and submit OFFICIAL transcripts indicating date of graduation or completion before beginning class. These may be emailed to: info@TNPTI.com or mailed to: TNPTI at 1819 Memorial Blvd., Murfreesboro, TN 37129
- Must be willing and able to perform the job as a medical biller and coder
- Must have access and use of a computer with working high speed internet, microphone and camera for the use of videoconferencing methods such as Zoom for instruction and testing

Attendance Requirements:

TN Professional Training Institute's Medical Billing and Coding program is an intensive, accelerated, 80-hour program. Students are allowed one (1) absence as long as they contact their instructor at least one (1) day prior to the missed class. Students who miss more than one (1) class time may be moved to the next session at the discretion of the instructor. Students are to schedule a make-up day (convenient to both instructor and student) to review and practice missed materials. For our online class logging into class late or logging off early may be considered absent.

Progress (Grades):

The instructor will keep a daily log of the student's grade and will communicate with students their updated grades weekly. However, students are ultimately in charge of keeping track of their own progress in the class and TNPTI is not responsible for students who forget to check their email, messages, etc.

Online Code of Conduct:

The TN Professional Training Institute is an institution where students can learn in a polite, respectful and productive environment. We ask that all students hold true to these standards to maintain this level of learning for all.

- Be respectful of the time of the course. Please log on 10 minutes prior to the start of class so that we may start and end on time without distractions. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class.
- This course is a synchronous course, which means there will be a LIVE instructor at all times. Students must have their video camera and microphone on for the duration of the class.
- Please be in a quiet location – free from outside activity, noise or any other distractions while in class. This is for your benefit and the benefit of others.
- Please dress appropriately for class. Casual classroom dress is acceptable (pajamas are not acceptable).
- You will be asked to show your driver’s license or government issued identification with your name and photograph on it at the beginning of each class and at the beginning of each test.
- Please refrain from eating, drinking and smoking during class or anything else that may be distracting to others.

All TNPTI students must abide by the TNPTI Code of Honor.

In-Person Code of Conduct:

The TN Professional Training Institute is a peaceful, productive place where students come to study about phlebotomy. Our goal is to provide a pleasant environment for our students and we ask that you do the same. Be respectful of the property and of each other. Try to arrive 10 minutes early for classes.

- All TNPTI students will abide by the TNPTI Code of Honor.
- TNPTI provides complimentary beverages and occasionally food for students to enjoy. Students are also allowed to respectfully consume snacks and drinks during classroom sessions only. Please do not abuse these privileges!
- When in a clinical environment, students will refrain from chewing gum, eating and drinking during this time.
- Maintain a professional clinical environment. To do this, TNPTI students are asked to cover any visible tattoos/body art. Additionally, jewelry is restricted to only one (1) piercing (per lobe) per ear and one (1) wedding band/ring if applicable.
- Students must dress business casual and professionally.

All TNPTI students must abide by the TNPTI Code of Honor.

TNPTI Code of Honor:

Code Defined: It is presumed that any student who enrolls at TN Professional Training Institute is willing to conform to a pattern of mutual trust and honor and shall deal honorably with all members of the TNPTI community. It must be understood that it is the responsibility of each student, faculty and staff member to preserve, nurture and strengthen this spirit of honor.

TNPTI students shall at all times refrain from and discourage all attempts at lying, cheating, stealing, plagiarism and vandalism. When a violation of the Honor Code is detected, the student(s) involved will be brought to the attention of the instructor and the Institutional Director or the Executive Director, who will come to a mutual agreement upon the disciplinary action appropriate for the action against the TNPTI code of honor.

Violations Defined:

"Lying" is defined as any attempt to deceive, falsify, or misrepresent the truth in any matter involving program business. Program business includes but is not limited to, financial aid information, excuses for absences, statements to professors in order to reschedule tests or assignments and responses to the queries of TNPTI staff.

"Cheating" is defined as the employment of or rendering of any illicit aid in any assigned work.

"Stealing" is defined as the appropriation of money or property belonging to another person, organization, or the school or the borrowing of property without the knowledge of the owner.

"Plagiarism" is defined as presenting as one's own work the words or ideas of an author or fellow student. Students should document quotes through quotation marks and footnotes or other accepted citation methods. Ignorance of these rules concerning plagiarism is not an excuse. When in doubt, students should seek clarification from the instructor who made the assignment.

"Vandalism" is defined as intentional, malicious damage to university property or property belonging to others.

Penalties: The directors may, for any first offense violation of the TNPTI Code of Honor, impose immediate dismissal of the student for the remainder of the program (depending on the severity of the violation). Dismissed students will not receive a refund for tuition monies paid.
